Did you know...

...that a "Starfish" is not really a fish at all and that its real name is a Sea Star?

...that a jelly has no bones, head, brain, heart, eyes, or ears? But that's no problem! To capture prey for food, jellies sting their victims with tentacles that contain poison.

...that it's really not a good idea to feed seagulls your food at the beach. They really need a healthy diet of foods found in the ocean just for them!

Nature Programs

Not just for birthday parties! Family Reunions and other celebrations too!

Snakes Alive!

Turtle, Turtles Everywhere

Crabs and Lobsters and Shells Oh, my!
